Is it a show of strength?

In the political circles, farmers agitation is being seen a show of strength of a particular Congress leader. If sources are to be believed the said leader wants to retain his position in the next state assembly election. Even insiders say, that its from one state are more agitated whereas the Agri bills are states. Farmers of other states do not seems to be much agitated.

one seat with just little over 7 per cent vote share in 2018 assembly polls bagged four seats in 2019 Lok Sabha polls with 19.45 per cent vote share.

Congress wins only two seats, of the 150, in the GHMC polls

WE SAID THIS ON DEC 2, 2020

Congress out of contest in GHMC elections ?

The Congress appears to be out of contest with the BJP emerging as challenger to TRS and AIMIM in the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation (GHMC) elections. Infact, it has been on constant decline in the state. In the last assembly polls held in 2018 when in alliance with the TDP, it won 19 seats with 28.43 per cent vote share but in 2019 Lok Sabha elections, the Congress fell behind the BJP in terms of seats, and could win just three seats despite 29.48 per

Will exposure give mileage to BJP?

BJP exposed many opposition leaders double speak on agriculture bill just before the 'Bharat Bandh' call given by agitating farmers. Many opposition parties have extended support to it. Now the question is will such exposure give some mileage to the party in the forthcoming assembly elections?
